

LEO LEADERSHIP FOR EQUITY & OPPORTUNITY

A LEARNING-IN-ACTION PROGRAM THAT EQUIPS A DIVERSE GROUP OF COMMUNITY LEADERS TO PRODUCE EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS FOR SYSTEMIC AND EQUITABLE CHANGE.

Facilitated By: Dr. Monica Sharma, Former Director of Leadership & Capacity Development, United Nations

Why This Program?

The LEO program offers a new approach to problem-solving and a leadership framework to foster new ways to work together across sectors and perspectives by creating systems and solutions that are both deeply practical and grounded in shared universal values such as equity, dignity and compassion,

Faced with a severe housing affordability crisis, increased homelessness, hunger and other issues, Contra Costa residents, service providers, community organizers, policy makers and leaders from business and philanthropic sectors must rise to the challenge to ensure all residents have an opportunity to meet their basic needs, reach their full potential and thrive,

LEO's rigorous leadership and project design framework with proven suite of tools and practices will help you transform systems and create a more equitable Contra Costa,

SESSION 1

February 4-6, 2020

Marina Event Center - Pittsburg

SESSION 2

March 10-12, 2020

Diablo Room - Diablo Valley College

SESSION 3

April 20-22, 2020

Fireside Hall - Contra Costa College

Application Deadline:
January 15, 2020

LEO LEADERSHIP FOR EQUITY & OPPORTUNITY

What Does This Program Offer?

- A deep dive into a proven framework for advancing sustainable and equitable change through systems change
- Personal leadership development to break through barriers to effectively advance goals and work with teams
- Proven project design practices and tools to solve problems, shift systems and activate the inner potential of leaders in our community
- Learning from Dr. Monica Sharma, former Director of Leadership and Capacity Development for the United Nations and author of Radical Transformational Leadership
- Opportunity to meet other change-makers and collaborators from Contra Costa and across the Bay Area who are tackling some of our most challenging community issue

Investment

Tuition for Contra Costa based residents and stakeholders is $500

Tuition for leaders outside of Contra Costa is $1075 (Tuition includes materials and refreshments for all three sessions. Limited scholarships are available for individuals/organizations who show need.)

For more details and registration, visit:
RiseTogetherBayArea.org/Leadership

The literal meaning of “to lead” – to step across a threshold, and to let go of whatever might limit stepping forward.

RISE
together